Our History

The Caribbean Studies Association (CSA) is an independent professional organization devoted to the promotion of Caribbean studies from a multidisciplinary, multicultural point of view. It is the primary association for scholars and practitioners working on the Caribbean Region (including Central America and the Caribbean Coast of South America). Its members come from the Caribbean Region, North America, South America, Central America, Europe and elsewhere even though more than half of its members live in the United States many of them teaching at U.S. universities and colleges. Founded in 1974 by 300 Caribbeanists, the CSA now has over 1100 members.

The Caribbean Studies Association enjoys non-profit status and is independent of any public or private institution. Membership is open to anyone interested in sharing its objectives, regardless of academic discipline, profession, ideology, place of residence, ethnic origin, or nationality.

The focus of the CSA is on the Caribbean Basin, which includes Central America, the Caribbean Coast of Mexico, as well as Venezuela, Colombia, Northeast Brazil and the three Guianas. The Association serves a critical function for scholars providing one of the only venues for persons working on the Caribbean to come together to share their work, to engage in collaborative endeavours, to exchange ideas, to meet each other, and to develop the field of Caribbean Studies. Most importantly, the Caribbean Studies Association has become potentially one of the most important vehicles for researching, analyzing, and documenting the growing significant presence of populations of Caribbean descent in United States, Canada and Europe. It provides the perfect venue for maintaining the intellectual and academic connections needed to study this growing phenomenon.

Members of CSA have played leading roles in the Caribbean, most notably in public service and in academia. These include current and past service as leaders of governments, administrators in multilateral and bilateral regional organizations. Many of our current members serve in senior positions at Caribbean, North American, and European universities.

President's Statement

The 38th Annual Conference of the CSA has generated tremendous interest based upon the conference programme that has been developed by the Programme Committee. I wish to welcome you to the conference and trust that it will meet all of your expectations irrespective of your disciplinary domain, skills set, career aspirations, linguistic orientation, region of residence and employment setting. Grenada is an idyllic setting for the conference and while its beauty and tranquillity will soothe the mind, its history of rebellion, revolt, invasion, resilience and self-reliance provide us with experiential realities and their interpretive nuances to excite the mind. For me, the CSA is the premier association of Caribbeanists globally and this year's conference will reinforce that notion insofar as it draws on the scholarly discourses, academic travails, artistic expressions, best-practice remedies and prospective strategies to interrogate and contest "development" paradigms that treat with challenges in the 21st century. I am confident that the CSA is the most appropriate community of scholars, academics, artists, practitioners and allied professionals to holistically embrace these notions in the context of the Caribbean in its widest sense. It is my hope that the conference will provide invaluable lessons to redress shortcomings that have pervaded earlier development paradigms, especially in cases where Caribbean spaces and institutions have been short-changed.

During June 3-7, 2013, the conference programme avails delegates of a variety of exciting activities. The academic component of the programme features five critical plenary sessions which are scheduled for mid-morning on each of the conference days. The main themes of these plenary sessions focus on the current economic crisis in Grenada, film and the visual arts, the environment and sustainable development, the scholarship of Gordon K. Lewis and the Grenada Revolution. There are two public lectures entitled "A Caribbean Story: The Grenada Journey - Possibilities, Contradictions, Lessons" by Professor Merle Collins and "Britain's Black Debt" by Professor Sir Hilary Beckles. On a daily basis, there are at least four sessions consisting of as many as nine panels per session. Each of these sessions consists of panels that cut across a range of disciplines including international relations, political science, economics, history, sociology, literature, gender studies, environmental studies, cultural studies, management studies and visual arts. This reflects the truly multi-disciplinary character of this year's conference and the potential that resides for the pursuit of interdisciplinary activities within the CSA. Several films pertinent to the conference theme are to be screened by film-makers from the Caribbean and as has been the case in some of the previous CSA conferences, this year's conference has sought to encourage the CSA membership to undertake projects that would stimulate community participation.

The CSA recognizes the productivity and the potential of its members. With regard to the former, the CSA is hosting Author Celebrations in lieu of the Traditional Book Launch and continues to grant Prestigious Awards such as the Gordon K and Sybil Lewis Award to a CSA author in accordance with pre-determined criteria. During this year's annual conference, there will be an award granted to the student member who has submitted the best written paper that is based on a quantitative research design. Similar awards such as the Barbara T. Christian Award and the George Priestley Award exist and attract potential submissions among eligible members. For student members, the CSA's Graduate Student Mentorship Committee has organized a Graduate Student Breakfast which is scheduled for 7.30am on Tuesday 4th June, 2013. This forum permits students to connect with senior academics and scholars as a means of building networks for the purpose of academic advice and professional development. The Graduate Student Mentorship Committee also convenes panels to assist students in dissertation writing standards, gaining knowledge of the standards associated with being published in refereed journals and other scholarly materials, developing interviewing skills and gaining employment in academic and other professional arenas.

Regarding my major accomplishments during my tenure, I have to express profound thanks to former presidents as my goals were predicated upon work that they had begun in earlier times. It was as if I were running the last leg of a relay with specific goals in mind. These included assuring the incorporation of the CSA as a Non-Profit Association in Trinidad and Tobago and securing a Memorandum of Understanding between The UWI and the CSA. I can say that these two goals were satisfied during my tenure as president. I also sought to widen the membership of the CSA by developing a conference theme that would lend itself to multi-disciplinary insights and at the same time, facilitate greater interdisciplinary research thrusts. In recognition of the contribution of former presidents who have presided over their respective councils and sustained the CSA for the past 38 years, I wish to begin the process of ensuring that they are brought to the fore during every annual conference beyond this one and hope that this year's President's Display will become more elaborate as the years pass. The role of the CSA president overwhelms the body and soul, yet president after president have brought us to the point of an annual conference. I take this opportunity to thank all the presidents who have preceded me.

In closing, I wish to thank my colleagues from this year's Executive Council for their consistent support throughout the year especially Maggie Shrimpton, Wendy Grenade, Dwaine Plaza, Joy Cooblal, Michelle Seeraj, Mala Jokhan, Ileana Sanz, Nadia Celis and Angela Roe for their critical interventions at various stages in organizing the activities of the 38th Annual Conference. I also wish to take this opportunity to recognize the supportive work done in all of the Sub-Committees that have worked in tandem with the Executive Council towards the successful hosting of the conference. In particular, I wish to express my sincerest thanks to the members who have served in the Programme Committee, the Graduate Mentorship Committee, the Film and Visual Arts Committee, the Trans-Lingual Working Group, the Travel Grant Committee, Book Launch/Book Display Committee, the Website Committee, the Elections' Committee, the Digital Media Group and the Newsletter Editorial Team. Among CSA members, I wish to thank Patricia Mohammed, Pedro Noguera, Marie-José Nzen-gou-Tayo, Cédric Audebert, Samuel Furé Davis, Holger Henke, Elvira Pulitano and Lisa Outar for their timely interventions and contributions at various stages in the preparation of activities associated with this year's conference. The webmaster, Special thanks are extended to Nadir Sharif, webmaster, who has been a beacon of support in the dissemination of critical CSA-related information. I also would like to say a special thanks to the panellists who have been specially invited to speak at plenary sessions, deliver public lectures or participate in the various literary salons. Similar thanks are also expressed to the film-makers who have graced us with their presence and are screening their films.

The membership of the CSA has responded overwhelmingly to the conference theme to the extent that there are in excess of 500 potential paper and round-table discussion presentations during the five days of the conference. This is a phenomenal treat to the conference delegates and the membership of the CSA deserves a warm thank you for their contribution to the academic content. The publishers of books, journals and other academic materials usually participate actively in the conference and contribute to the revenue stream of the CSA. For their collaboration with CSA members who are authors and contributors and more importantly, for their role in disseminating materials that permit interpretive and other accounts of Caribbean realities, I wish to use this medium to say thank you very much. The Administrative organs of two major tertiary level institutions in the Caribbean have actively supported this conference financially and in kind. They are the St. George's University and The University of the West Indies, the latter through each of its four campuses. Their support has been invaluable and on behalf of the CSA membership, I personally thank these two institutions for their commitment towards ensuring that the CSA continues to make a valuable contribution to the state of knowledge and the well-being of Caribbean peoples and institutions. Three major airlines operating within the Caribbean Region, namely COPA, Caribbean Airlines and American Airlines have offered discounted fares to CSA conference delegates. I am indeed grateful to these airlines for the savings derived from such discounts.

The Local Organizing Committee (LOC) consists of Grenadian citizens and residents who possess an intricate appreciation of local politics, culture and the business environment. On a local level, they have facilitated conference-related activities on behalf the CSA. This conference could not have been realized without the tremendous input of the LOC. As such, I wish to express my sincerest thanks to the leadership and membership of the LOC, in particular, Wendy Crawford-Daniel, Ian Baptiste, Claudia Halley, Curtis Jacob, Nikisha Thomas, Tonia Frame, Petipha Lewis-Smith, Ann-Marie Charles, Francis Urias Peters, Dawn Walker, Wendy Tamar-Asby, Samantha Ince-John, Rhanisha Alexander, Kimalee Phillip, Nicole Moultrie and Nikoyan Roberts. Especial thanks are also expressed to Dr. The Right Honourable Keith Mitchell, Prime Minister of Grenada, senior government officials, senior technocrats in Grenada's public service and the media for allowing me to share my vision of having Grenada being the site of the 38th Annual Conference. I made several visits to Grenada between April 2012 and May 2013 and was always warmly welcomed and accommodated by all and sundry. The Management and Staff of the Grenada Grand Beach Resort and Conference Facility have always been very gracious in attending to all matters pertaining to hosting the conference in Grenada and I wish to express my gratitude for the services that they have rendered to the CSA. In this regard, I wish to identify Ms. Arleen Redhead and Ms. Shanelle Parris for special commendation. Last but not least, I wish to acknowledge and thank those entities from the business community, the Government of Grenada and the peoples of Grenada, all of whom have thrown their support behind this conference, whether financially or in kind, to ensure that it has a successful outcome.

Declaración Del Presidente

La 38a Conferencia Anual de la CSA ha generado un tremendo interés gracias al contenido del programa de la conferencia, desarrollado por el Comité del Programa. Quisiera darles la bienvenida a la conferencia confiando con que llenara todas sus expectativas, independientemente de su dominio disciplinario, habilidades, aspiraciones profesionales, su idioma, región de residencia o su entorno laboral. Granada es un lugar idílico para la conferencia ya que mientras su belleza y tranquilidad apaciguan la mente, su historia de rebelión, invasión, resistencia y autonomía nos proporcionan realidades experienciales para excitar la mente. Para mí, la CSA es la principal asociación de Caribeñistas globalmente, y la conferencia de este año reforzará esa idea en la medida en que se vale de los discursos académicos, tribulaciones académicas, expresiones artísticas, los mejores remedios prácticos y estrategias posibles para interrogar y cuestionar los paradigmas de "desarrollo" que nos plantean los retos en el siglo 21. Estoy seguro de que la CSA es la comunidad más apropiada de estudiantes, académicos, artistas, profesionistas y aliados profesionales para abarcar de manera integral estas nociones en el contexto del Caribe, en su sentido más amplio. Tengo la esperanza de que la conferencia provea lecciones invalúables para corregir las deficiencias que han permanecido en los paradigmas de desarrollo anteriores, especialmente en los casos donde las instituciones y los espacios Caribeños han sido poco cambiados.

Del 3 al 7 de Julio de 2013 el programa de la conferencia se llenará de gran variedad de actividades emocionantes. El programa académico se compone e incluye cinco críticas sesiones plenarias cuyas presentaciones están programadas a media mañana en cada uno de los días de la conferencia. Los principales temas de estas sesiones se centran en la actual crisis económica de Granada, el cine y las artes visuales, el medio ambiente y el desarrollo sustentable, la obra y contribución intelectual de Gordon K. Lewis y la Revolución de Granada. Hay dos lecturas publicas tituladas "Una historia caribeña: El viaje de Granada-lecciones, contradicciones y posibilidades" por Profesor Merle Collins y "La deuda negra de Inglaterra" por Profesor Sir Hilary Beckles. Todos los días, hay por lo menos cuatro sesiones que consisten de un máximo de nueve paneles por sesión. Cada una de estas sesiones consiste en paneles que abarcan una amplia gama de disciplinas, incluyendo: relaciones internacionales, ciencias políticas, economía, historia, sociología, literatura, estudios de género, estudios ambientales, estudios culturales, estudios de gestión y artes visuales. Esto refleja el indudable carácter multidisciplinario de la conferencia de este año y el potencial para el seguimiento de actividades interdisciplinarias en la CSA. Varias películas relacionadas con los temas de la conferencia serán presentadas por cineastas del Caribe y como se ha realizado en conferencias anteriores, la conferencia de este año alienta a los miembros de la CSA a llevar a cabo proyectos que fomenten la participación de la comunidad.

La asociación de Estudios Caribeños reconoce la productividad y el potencial de sus miembros. Con respecto a la primera, la CSA preside celebraciones de autores en honor a la tradicional presentación de libros y continúa concediendo prestigiosos premios como el Gordon K. y Sybil Lewis Award para el autor de la CSA que reúna ciertos criterios. Durante la conferencia anual de este año, se otorgará un premio al miembro estudiante que haya presentado ensayo escrito, basado en una investigación cuantitativa. Existen premios similares como el Barbara T. Christian y el George Priestley que atraen posibles sumisiones entre miembros elegibles. Para los miembros estudiantes el Comité para Estudiantes Graduados ha organizado un desayuno que está programada para las 7:30 am el día martes 4 de junio de 2013. Este foro permite a los estudiantes conectarse con catedráticos y académicos como medio para la creación de redes con el fin de asesoría académica y desarrollo profesional. El Comité de Mentores para Estudiantes Graduados también tiene paneles para ayudar a los estudiantes con las normas de escritura de tesis, obtener conocimiento de las normas asociadas a su publicación en revistas especializadas y otros materiales académicos, fomentan el desarrollo de habilidades para un buen desempeño en entrevistas y poder así conseguir un buen empleo ya sea en ámbitos académicos profesionales u otros.

En cuanto a mis mayores logros durante mi mandato, he de expresar un profundo agradecimiento a los ex presidentes de la CSA pues mis objetivos se basan en el trabajo que habían comenzado en épocas pasadas. Era como si yo estuviera a cargo de la última etapa de un proyecto con las metas específicas en mente. Estos incluyen asegurar la incorporación de la CSA como una Asociación sin ánimo de lucro en Trinidad y Tobago y la obtención de un Memorando de Entendimiento entre la UWI y la CSA. Puedo decir que estas dos metas se concluyeron durante mi estancia como presidente. También he tratado de aumentar el número de miembros de la CSA con el desarrollo de temas dentro de la conferencia que se prestan a múltiples perspectivas y, al mismo tiempo, facilitar mayores ejes de investigación interdisciplinaria. En reconocimiento a la contribución de los ex presidentes que han presidido sus respectivos consejos y sustentado a la CSA durante los últimos 38 años, quisiera poner en marcha el mecanismo para asegurar que su contribución sea visible durante cada Conferencia anual a futuro y espero que la Exposición Presidencial crecerá con el paso de los años. El rol del presidente de la CSA sobrepasa al cuerpo y alma, aun así, presidente tras presidente nos han traído hasta donde estamos ahora, a punto de una nueva conferencia anual. Aprovecho esta oportunidad para agradecerle a cada uno de los presidentes que han estado antes que yo.

Para concluir, deseo agradecer a mis colegas del Consejo Ejecutivo por su constante apoyo a lo largo de este año, especialmente a Maggie Shrimpton, Wendy Grenade, Dwaine Plaza, Joy Coobla, Michelle Seeraj, Mala Jokhan, Ileana Sanz, Nadia Celis y Angela Roe por sus críticas intervenciones en los diferentes estados de la organización de las actividades de la 38a Conferencia Anual. También quiero aprovechar esta oportunidad para reconocer el trabajo realizado en todos los subcomités que han participado en conjunto con el Consejo Ejecutivo para la exitosa celebración de esta conferencia. Particularmente, deseo expresar mi más sincero agradecimiento a los miembros que han servido en el Comité del Programa, el Comité de Tutoría de Posgrado, El Comité de Films y Artes Visuales, el Grupo de Trabajo Translingual, el Comité de Becas para Viajes, el Comité de Presentación de libros / Comité de Exposición de libros, el Comité del Sitio Web, el Comité Electoral, el Grupo de Medios Digitales y el Boletín del equipo editorial. Entre los miembros de la CSA, me gustaría agradecerle a Patricia Mohammed, Pedro Noguera, Marie-José Nzen-gou-Tayo, Cédric Audebert, Samuel Furé Davis, Holger Henke, Elvira Pulitano y Lisa Outar por sus puntuales intervenciones y contribuciones en las diferentes etapas de la preparación de las actividades para la conferencia de este año. Gracias especiales al webmaster Nadir Sharif quien ha sido de gran ayuda para la difusión de información crítica relacionada con la CSA. Me gustaría, igual, agradecer a los panelistas que han sido invitados a hablar en las sesiones plenarias, quienes igual trajeron lecturas públicas o han participado en los varios salones literarios. Agradezco por igual a los Directores de Cine quienes proyectarán sus films y nos honrarán con su presencia.

Los miembros de la CSA han respondido de manera positiva para con el tema de la conferencia, y gracias a eso hemos llegado a más de 500 ponencias y mesas redondas durante los cinco días que dura la conferencia. Esto es un hecho fenomenal para los delegados de la conferencia y los miembros de la CSA, quienes se merecen un cálido agradecimiento por sus aportes al contenido académico. Los editores de libros, revistas y otros materiales académicos suelen participar activamente en la conferencia y contribuyen al flujo de ingresos para la CSA. Por su colaboración con los miembros del CSA, autores y contribuyentes y sobre todo, por su papel en la difusión de materiales que permiten nuevas interpretaciones sobre las realidades del Caribe, quiero aprovechar este medio para darles las gracias. Los órganos administrativos de dos grandes instituciones de tercer nivel en el Caribe, han apoyado activamente tanto monetariamente como en especie. Esas instituciones son la St. George's University y la University of the West Indies, esta última prestando uno de sus cuatro campus. Su apoyo ha sido invaluable y en nombre de los miembros del CSA, y yo personalmente les agradezco a estas dos instituciones por su compromiso por asegurar que la CSA siga aportando una valiosa contribución para el conocimiento y el bienestar de los pueblos y las instituciones del Caribe. Las tres principales compañías aéreas del Caribe: COPA, Caribbean Airlines y American Airlines han ofrecido descuentos a los delegados de la CSA. Estoy muy agradecido con estas aerolíneas por los ahorros gracias a esos descuentos.

El Comité Organizador Local (LOC) se compone de los ciudadanos granadinos y los residentes que poseen una compleja valoración de la política local, la cultura y el entorno empresarial. A nivel local, nos han dado las facilidades para realizar las actividades relacionadas con la conferencia en nombre de la CSA. Esta conferencia no podría haberse realizado sin el gran apoyo del LOC. De la misma forma, quiero expresar mi más sincero agradecimiento a los dirigentes y miembros de la LOC, en particular a Wendy Crawford-Daniel, Ian Baptiste, Claudia Halley, Curtis Jacob, Nikisha Thomas, Tonia Frame, Petipha Lewis-Smith, Ann-Marie Charles, Francis Urias Peters, Dawn Walker, Wendy Tamar-Ashby, Samantha Ince-John, Rhanisha Alexander, Kimalee Phillip, Nicole Moultrie and Nikoyan Roberts. Mi especial agradecimiento para el honorable Dr. Keith Mitchell, Primer Ministro de Grenada, a los altos funcionarios gubernamentales, los tecnócratas de alto nivel al servicio público de Granada y para los medios por permitirme compartir mi visión de que sea Granada la sede de la 38a Conferencia Anual. Hice varias visitas a Granada entre abril de 2012 y mayo de 2013 y siempre me dieron una cálida bienvenida. El gerente y el equipo administrativo del hotel Grenada Grand Beach Resort han estado siempre muy atentos para con las cuestiones relacionadas con la celebración de la conferencia en Granada y me gustaría darles las gracias por los servicios que han prestado a la CSA. Igualmente, quiero agradecerles a Arleen Redhead y a Shanelle Parris. Por último, pero no menos importante, quiero reconocer y agradecer a las entidades de la comunidad empresarial, al Gobierno de Granada y sus pueblos, quienes han dado su apoyo a esta conferencia, ya sea financieramente o en especie, para asegurarse que todo se lleve a cabo de manera exitosa.

38^e conférence annuelle de la CSA

La 38ème conférence annuelle de la CSA a suscité un vif intérêt grâce à l'excellent programme proposé par le Comité en charge de la programmation. Je vous souhaite à tous la bienvenue. Que cette conférence comble toutes vos attentes, quelles que soient vos domaines de recherches, talents, aspirations académiques, langues, lieu de résidence et profession! Grenade est un cadre idyllique pour cette rencontre. Alors que sa beauté et sa quiétude calment l'esprit, son histoire - rébellions, révoltes, invasions, résistance et indépendance - nous offre des réalités toutes en nuances propices à stimuler nos interprétations. Je considère pour ma part que la CSA est la première association internationale de caribéanistes et cette année le thème de la conférence me conforme dans cette idée, puisque les discussions critiques, les débats académiques, les expressions artistiques, les solutions pratiques et les stratégies à long terme ont nourries ce qui nous permet d'interroger et de mettre en perspective les paradigmes de « développement » qui proposent des challenges au 21^{ème} siècle. J'ai la conviction que la CSA réunit la communauté d'universitaires, d'intellectuels, de professionnels et de personnes de terrain la plus appropriée à adresser ces questions de manière globale dans le contexte de la région caraïbe entendue au sens le plus large. Mon souhait le plus cher est que cette conférence nous offre des leçons utiles pour corriger les défauts des paradigmes de développement précédents, surtout lorsque les espaces et les institutions caribéennes n'ont pas été changées.

Du 3 au 7 Juin 2013, le programme de la conférence propose une série de rencontres stimulantes et extrêmement variées. La dimension universitaire du programme se reflète dans la mise en place de cinq séances plénières à portée critique, proposées en fin de matinée chaque jour. Les thèmes principaux de ces séances plénières portent sur la crise économique à Grenade, le cinéma et les arts visuels, l'environnement et l'écologie, les œuvres de Gordon K. Lewis et la révolution de Grenade. Se tiendront aussi deux grandes conférences publiques, inti-tulées "Une histoire caribéenne: l'odyssée de Grenade - Possibilités, contradictions, leçons" par la Professeure Merle Collins et "La dette noire de la Grande Bretagne" par le Professeur Sir Hilary Beckles. Chaque jour se tiendront quatre sessions accueillant jusqu'à neuf panels par session. Chacune de ces sessions propose des panels qui touchent à de multiples disciplines telles que les relations internationales, la science politique, l'économie, l'histoire, la sociologie, la littérature, les études de genre, les études environnementales, les études culturelles, le management et les arts visuels. Cela reflète bien le caractère proprement interdisciplinaire des activités de la CSA, et cela présage que cette interdisciplinarité continuera dans le futur à être le flambeau de notre association. Plusieurs films, en dialogue direct avec le thème de la conférence, seront projetés par des réalisateurs caribéens. Comme ce fut le cas dans le passé, cette année l'esprit de la conférence a consisté à encourager les projets qui permettaient de stimuler la participation de la communauté dans son ensemble.

L'association CSA reconnaît la productivité et le potentiel de ses membres, par exemple à travers des célébrations d'auteurs lors des traditionnels lancements de livres, et à travers des récompenses prestigieuses telles que le prix Gordon K et Sybil Lewis, donné à un auteur membre de la CSA, selon des critères d'évaluations bien spécifiques. Cette année lors de la conférence, un prix d'étudiant membre sera remis pour récompenser la meilleure présentation basée sur une vaste recherche. De même, les prix Barbara T. Christian et George Priestley sont des compétitions adressées aux personnes membres de la CSA, et tout membre éligible peut soumettre sa candidature. Pour les étudiants, le comité de mentors étudiant (Graduate Student Mentorship Committee) a organisé un petit déjeuner à partir de 7H30 le mardi 4 Juin au matin. Ce forum permettra aux étudiants d'établir un réseau de contacts avec d'autres universitaires plus expérimentés et avec des intellectuels et des chercheurs, afin d'obtenir des conseils quant à leur carrière académique et leur progression professionnelle. Le comité de mentors étudiant (Graduate Student Mentorship Committee) offrira aussi des séances d'aide à la rédaction de dissertations, d'aide à la connaissance des standards requis pour être publié dans des revues à comités de lecture et autres types de publications académiques, et d'aide au développement de stratégies efficaces lors d'entretiens pour obtenir un poste dans le monde universitaire comme dans d'autres sphères professionnelles.

Au vu de ma propre expérience pendant mon mandat, je souhaite exprimer mes profonds remerciements aux précédents présidents, car l'efficacité de mon travail et les buts que je me suis fixés n'ont pu être atteints que grâce aux efforts et aux gains qu'eux mêmes ont accompli par le passé. Je me suis senti comme le dernier coureur d'une équipe de relai, qui reçoit le témoin dans la dernière ligne droite avec des buts bien précis en tête. Ainsi s'agissait-il pour moi d'assurer que la CSA soit incorporée à Trinidad et Tobago comme une association à but non lucratif et de mettre en place un mémorandum d'accord entre l'association CSA et l'Université des West Indies. Je peux dire aujourd'hui que ces deux buts ont été atteints lors de mon mandat de président. J'ai aussi souhaité élargir la participation à la CSA sur la base d'un thème propice aux approches interdisciplinaires. En reconnaissance de la contribution faite par les précédents présidents et pour avoir faire vivre la CSA pendant les 38 dernières années, je souhaite faire en sorte qu'ils soient mis à l'honneur à chaque conférence annuelle à venir et j'espère que la Exposition Présidentielle sera de plus en plus élaborée les années passant. Le rôle du président de la CSA implique qu'il s'y voie corps et âme, et président après président, nous sommes parvenu où nous en sommes aujourd'hui, à l'aube d'une nouvelle conférence annuelle. Je remercie chaleureusement tous les présidents qui m'ont précédé.

En résumé, je tiens à remercier mes collègues du conseil exécutif pour leur soutien constant cette année et tout particulièrement Maggie Shrimpton, Wendy Grenade, Dwaine Plaza, Joy Cooblal, Michelle Seerah, Mala Jokhan, Ileana Sanz, Nadia Celis and Angela Roe pour leurs interventions critiques et constructives à chaque étape de la mise en place de la 38ème conférence annuelle. Je souhaite aussi profiter de cette opportunité pour remercier tous les sous-comités qui nous ont épaulé et ont travaillé en tandem avec le comité exécutif pour permettre que l'organisation de cette conférence soit un succès. Je tiens tout particulièrement à remercier les membres du comité en charge du programme, le comité de mentors pour étudiants, le comité pour la présentations de livres, le comité pour les films et arts visuels, le groupe de travail translinguistique, le comité en charge des bourse de voyages et déplacements, le groupe de média digital et l'équipe de rédaction de la Newsletter. Parmi les membres de la CSA, je remercie Patricia Mohammed, Pedro Noguera, Marie-José Nzengou-Tayo, Cédric Audebert, Samuel Furé Davis, Holger Henke, Elvira Pulitano et Lisa Outar pour leurs contributions à divers stades de la préparation des activités. Un grand merci à notre webmaster, Nadir Sharif qui a été d'une aide précieuse pour diffuser l'information critique relative à la CSA. Je remercie également les conférenciers qui ont été invités à présenter leurs idées durant les séances plénierées et à participer aux divers salons littéraires. Et un grand merci auxx réalisateurs qui nous ont fait l'honneur de leur présence et de venir projeter leurs films.

Les membres de la CSA ont répondu de manière extrêmement positive au thème de la conférence, au point que nous avons eu le plaisir d'avoir plus de 500 présentations, tables rondes et discussions programmées tout au long des cinq jours de conférence. C'est un résultat fantastique pour les délégués de l'association et les membres méritent un merci tout particulier pour leur travail et leur contribution aux débats d'idées et aux discussions académiques. Les éditeurs de livres, de revues et d'autres travaux académiques participent habituellement à la conférence et contribuent à faire entrer des bénéfices à la CSA. Pour leur collaboration avec les membres de la CSA, qui sont des auteurs et des contributeurs, mais bien plus, pour avoir contribué à disséminer des matériaux qui suscitent de nouvelles interprétations et lectures quant aux réalités de la région caraïbe, je souhaite profiter de cette opportunité pour les remercier. Les organismes administratifs de deux institutions majeures de troisième niveau dans les Caraïbes ont activement soutenu cette conférence, financièrement et à tout niveau. Il s'agit de l'Université Saint George et de l'Université des West Indies, cette dernière ayant mis son campus à notre disposition. Leur soutien a été fondamental et au nom de tous les membres de la CSA, je remercie personnellement ces deux institutions pour leur engagement et pour avoir permis que la CSA continue à jouer une place de choix dans la connaissance et le bien être des peuples et des institutions des Caraïbes. Trois des compagnies aériennes principales des Caraïbes, COPA, Caribbean Airlines et American Airlines, ont offert des réductions et tarifs préférentiels aux délégués de la CSA. Je les remercie chaleureusement pour les économies et le moindre coût qu'elles ont permis et facilités.

Le comité organisateur local (LOC) comprend des citoyens de Grenade et des résidents qui possèdent une connaissance juste de la politique locale, de la culture et de l'environnement financier et entrepreunarial. Au niveau local, ils ont facilité les activités de la CSA liées à la conférence. Cette dernière n'aurait pas pu avoir lieu sans le soutien fabuleux du LOC. Je souhaite donc remercier très sincèrement les membres du LOC, en particulier Wendy Daniel-Crawford, Ian Baptiste, Claudia Hallley, Curtis Jacob, Nikisha Thomas, Tonia Frame, Petipha Lewis-Smith, Ann-Marie Charles, Francis Urias Peters, Dawn Walker, Wendy Tamar et bien d'autres. Un merci tout particulier au Dr Keith Mitchell, Premier Ministre de Grenade, et aux hauts fonctionnaires gouvernementaux et technocrates de haut niveau dans le service public de Grenade pour avoir permis que Grenade soit le cadre de cette 38ème conférence annuelle. J'ai fait plusieurs voyages à Grenade entre avril 2012 et mai 2013, et j'ai toujours été chaleureusement accueilli. Les employés du Grenada Beach Resort ont toujours été à l'écoute quant à tout ce qui touchait à l'organisation de la conférence et je souhaite ici exprimer ma gratitude pour les services qu'ils ont rendu à la CSA. A ce titre, je veux nommer Mmes Arleen Redhead et Shanelle Paris. Enfin, en dernier lieu mais non le moindre, je voudrais remercier la communauté entrepreunariale, le gouvernement de Grenade et ses habitants, qui ont soutenu cette conférence, financièrement et humainement, et ont permis qu'elle soit un vif succès.

CSA Grenada 2013 is here! Welcome everyone!

We are looking forward to an excellent meeting, with intense discussions and happy encounters within and without the conference framework. As you will see from our website (caribbeanstudiesassociation.org) designing the conference programme is a real team effort, and my thanks and appreciation go out to my program committee who have worked for so many months to put this together: Rita Keresztesi, Ileana Sanz, Tony Beithell and Godfrey St Bernard. However, it is not a mere act of chance that CSA is now holding the 38th Annual Conference and already looking forward to numbers 39 and 40. We have a long history and with this in mind I wish also to thank recent Past-Program chairs –Dwaine Plaza, Alissa Trotz, Terry-Ann Jones and particularly Gina Ulysse. The continued contributions of CSA members, past, present and future enables us to continue to move forward as an Association.

We have a growing team of translators and aids –students, colleagues, and friends- who are an invaluable part of this year's CSA, and we are indebted to their hard work. We would not be where we are now without the volunteer support of a large number of CSA members –some new, some more experienced- who are collaborating on our numerous committees and putting up with an endless pile up of email and skype communications from the program chair, as we work together from a myriad of different countries, in different languages and across a variety of time zones. The time, efforts, ideas, creativity and expertise of each and every person serving on our committees are invaluable, but I would specially like to mention here my young team in Yucatan for their endless support on this intense journey and their first CSA experience behind the scenes: Adyani Pérez, Zandra Pruneda, Josué Ku, Luis Uriel Pérez, Fausto Sánchez and Samuel Jouault. I add special thanks also to Wendy Grenade, Aaron Kamugisha, Patricia Mohammed, Mala Jokhan, Urias Peters, Tonia Frame, Kimalee Phillips and Nadir Sharif. Of course, we gain stability all along the way through the constant support of the great teams at the Secretariat and the Local Committee who are asked to put into practice on the ground, our sometimes vague ideas and distant notions. Certainly for me, this year has been a challenging and rewarding experience: my sincere thanks go out to our 2012-13 CSA President Dr. Godfrey St Bernard, for being crazy enough to ask me to take part in this adventure, but above all for being a gracious guide and leader and a team worker of endless patience. Thank you Godfrey, thank you everyone.

Greetings from the Program Chair

In the pages that follow you will enjoy reading our program highlights and to tracking the different threads that run through this interdisciplinary jigsaw, as you find out how colleagues have addressed the conference theme, and raised issues we perhaps would not have thought about on our own, and have come to share with us. Rather than to summarize the program content, I would prefer to focus these brief words on two particular features that have guided our rationale behind the scenes. A key point for us is Grenada. Grenada is the protagonist of the 38th CSA Annual Conference, and we are honoured and delighted to be a part of this wonderful community and to celebrate such a broad range of scholarly discussion and community participations, on plenaries, workshops, roundtables, the literary salon and the film track, and more. Grenada has welcomed the Caribbean Studies Association with open arms, and we are grateful.

The second key point for us is the multilingual CSA: following on and consolidating the moves made for a multilingual CSA over recent years and particularly thanks to the hard work and perseverance of the Translingual Working Group (TWG) we asked CSA members this year to submit their conference proposals with translations into Spanish, French and /or English. Many of you have done this, and have responded so very enthusiastically. English remains a dominant language (numerically speaking) but as you look through the Conference Program you will see we have included all panel titles in two languages, (English/ French, English/Spanish; Spanish/ English) and so strive to keep at least these three CSA languages visible, present and speaking out to everyone. To this end, we are translating all our plenary sessions and will once again be translating as many panels as possible via Whispering Translation, made possible by the generous efforts of our members and ably coordinated by Nadia Celis and Lisa Outar. All the abstracts submitted and accepted for the conference are available online on our website in as many languages as have been provided for us. Several members have kindly included translations in Dutch and Creole: this is our challenge for the days ahead -making all our many languages visible, in as many spaces as possible. This has been a very rewarding experience and it is clear to me that our CSA membership really is committed to (and enjoys) multilingual expression.

I wish to thank all our conference delegates, plenary speakers, guest writers and artists for their patience and collaboration in the planning process over these last months, for their timely communication of cancellations and changes to papers and panels. This has been very helpful. I am sure there will also be some last minute, unavoidable cancellations, and I must again appeal to your patience and understanding if panels are affected. Thank you all again for making this an excellent and memorable week.

Saludos de la Presidenta del Comité de Programa

¡CSA 2013 Granada está aquí! ¡Bienvenidos a todos!

Estamos en espera de un excelente encuentro con debates intensos y felices experiencias dentro y fuera del marco de la conferencia. Como podrán ver en nuestro sitio web (caribbeanstudiesassociation.org) diseñar el programa de la conferencia es un gran esfuerzo en equipo, y mi apreciación y gratitud se las doy a mi Comité de programa, quienes han trabajado por muchos meses para realizar esto: Rita Keresztesi, Ileana Sanz, Tony Bethell y Godfrey St Bernard. Sin embargo, no es una mera coincidencia que la CSA este ahora presentando la 38a conferencia anual y preparándose para la 39a y 40a. Tenemos una larga historia y con esto en mente me gustaría agradecer también a los encargados de programas anteriores –Dwaine Plaza, Alissa Trotz, Terry-Ann Jones y particularmente a Gina Ulysse. Las continuas contribuciones de los miembros de la CSA del pasado, presente y futuro nos incentivan a continuar como la Asociación que somos.

Nuestro equipo está creciendo constantemente con nuevos traductores y ayudantes –estudiantes, colegas, y amigos- que son una parte invaluable de la CSA de éste año y estamos en deuda con ellos por su arduo trabajo. No estaríamos en donde nos encontramos ahora si no fuera por el apoyo voluntario de una larga lista de miembros de la CSA –algunos nuevos, otros más experimentados- quienes han colaborado en nuestros numerosos comités y quienes han soportado una pila de interminables correos y comunicaciones por Skype enviadas por presidenta del comité del programa, mientras trabajamos juntos desde un sin número de diferentes países, en diferentes lenguas y a través de diferentes zonas horarias. El tiempo, los esfuerzos, las ideas, la creatividad, y el talento de cada una de las personas al servicio de nuestros comités es invaluable, pero me gustaría mencionar especialmente a mi joven equipo aquí en Yucatán, por su apoyo incondicional en éste intenso viaje, en su primera experiencia de la CSA, tras bambalinas: Adyani Pérez Aguilar, Sandra Ramírez Pruneda, Josué Ku Gallegos, Luis Uriel Pérez Maldonado, Fausto Sánchez López y Samuel Jouault. Gracias especiales también a Wendy Grenade, Aarón Kamugisha, Patricia Mohammed, Mala Jokhan, Urias Peters, Tonia Frame, Kimalee Phillips y Nadir Sharif. Por supuesto, también hemos ganado estabilidad a lo largo del camino a través del apoyo constante de los maravillosos equipos de la Secretaría y del Comité Local a quienes les pedimos poner en práctica y aterrizar nuestras, a veces, vagas ideas para la conferencia. Ciertamente, para mí, este año ha sido una experiencia desafiante y gratificante: mi más sincero agradecimiento a nuestro Presidente de la CSA, 2012 al 2013, el Dr. Godfrey St Bernard, por ser lo suficientemente loco cómo para pedirme participar en esta aventura, pero sobre todo, muchas gracias por ser un guía y líder gentil y un colaborador con una paciencia infinita. Gracias Godfrey, gracias a todos.

En las páginas siguientes disfrutarán leyendo los puntos más destacados del programa y podrán dar seguimiento a los diferentes ejes temáticos que atraviesan este rompecabezas interdisciplinario; y descubrirán cómo sus colegas han tratado los diferentes tópicos de la conferencia, y planteado las cuestiones que tal vez no habríamos pensado antes, y que han venido a compartir con nosotros. En lugar de hacer un resumen del contenido del programa, prefiero centrar estas breves palabras en dos características particulares que han guiado nuestra razón de ser detrás de escenas. Un punto clave para nosotros es Granada. Granada es la protagonista de la 38^a Conferencia Anual de la CSA, y nos sentimos honrados y encantados de ser parte de esta maravillosa comunidad y de celebrar una gama tan amplia de discusión académica y de participaciones comunitarias, en sesiones plenarias, talleres, mesas redondas, el salón literario, proyecciones de cine actual, y mucho más. Granada ha acogido a la Asociación de Estudios del Caribe, con los brazos abiertos y estamos profundamente agradecidos.

El segundo punto clave para nosotros es la CSA multilingüe: avanzando y consolidando los logros realizados para una Asociación multilingüe en los últimos años y esto sobre todo gracias al trabajo duro y la perseverancia del Grupo de Trabajo Translingual (TWG), este año le pedimos a los miembros de la CSA presentar sus propuestas para la conferencia con la traducción al español, francés y / o inglés. Muchos de ustedes han hecho esto, y han respondido con gran entusiasmo. Si bien el inglés sigue siendo el idioma dominante (numéricamente hablando), conforme miran a través del Programa de la Conferencia verán que hemos incluido todos los títulos de los paneles en dos idiomas (Inglés / Francés, Inglés / Español, Español / Inglés) y así tratamos de mantener al menos estos tres idiomas visibles en la CSA, presentes y en dialogo con todos. Con este fin, se traducirán todas las sesiones plenarias y tantos paneles como sea posible a través de nuestras traducciones "surradas", posible gracias a los generosos esfuerzos de nuestros miembros y hábilmente coordinados por Nadia Celis y Lisa Outar. Todos los resúmenes presentados y aceptados para la conferencia están disponibles en línea en nuestro sitio web en todos los idiomas que se han provisto para nosotros. Varios miembros han incluido amablemente traducciones en holandés y créole: este es nuestro desafío para los días venideros, hacer nuestras muchas lenguas visibles, en cuantos más espacios sea posible. Esta ha sido una experiencia muy gratificante y es claro para mí que nuestros miembros de la CSA están realmente comprometidos con (y disfrutan de) la expresión multilingüe.

Deseo agradecer a todos nuestros delegados de la conferencia, a los oradores plenarios, los escritores y los artistas invitados por su paciencia y colaboración en el proceso de planificación en estos últimos meses, por sus avisos oportunos de las cancelaciones y los cambios a los documentos y paneles. Esto ha sido de gran ayuda. Estoy segura de que también habrá cancelaciones de último minuto y apelo a su paciencia y comprensión si los paneles se ven afectados. Gracias a todos por hacer de esta una excelente e inolvidable semana.

La Conférence CSA Grenada 2013 est ouverte! Bienvenue à tous!

Nous attendons avec impatience cette grande rencontre, avec son lot d'intenses discussions et d'heureuses réjouissances dans le cadre de la conférence et au-delà. Comme vous pouvez le voir sur notre site internet (caribbeanstudiesassociation.org), la mise en place du programme a requis un véritable travail d'équipe et je tiens à remercier chaleureusement les membres du comité en charge du programme qui ont travaillé pendant des mois pour qu'il voit le jour: Rita Keresztesi, Ileana Sanz, Tony Bethell and Godfrey St Bernard. Ce n'est pas par un heureux hasard que CSA ouvre les portes de sa 38ème conférence annuelle, et nous espérons que viendront bientôt les 39ème et 40ème sessions. Nous avons une longue histoire derrière nous et je souhaite remercier les directeurs de programme qui m'ont précédée –Dwaine Plaza, Alissa Trotz, Terry-Ann Jones et en particulier Gina Ulysse. Les contributions d'année en année des membres de CSA, présents, passés et futurs, nous permettent de continuer à exister activement comme association.

Notre équipe de traducteurs s'agrandit – étudiants, collègues et amis. Tous ont joué un rôle essentiel dans l'organisation de la rencontre de cette année, et nous les remercions pour leur aide précieuse. Nous ne serions pas où nous en sommes aujourd'hui sans le volontariat et l'aide d'un grand nombre des membres de CSA – jeunes recrues ou membres de longue date – qui collaborent aux multiples réunions du comité, se plient à la lecture d'interminables courriers électroniques et se connectent sur skype pour discuter avec leur directrice de programme, puisque nous sommes tous dans des pays, des espaces linguistiques et des fuseaux horaires différents. Vous tous avez été d'une aide précieuse et essentielle, grâce à vos efforts, vos idées, votre créativité et votre savoir faire. Je tiens à remercier en particulier ma jeune équipe du Yucatan pour leur travail sans relâche lors de ce qui fut leur première expérience CSA en coulisses : Adyani Pérez Aguilar, Sandra Ramírez Pruneda, Josué Ku Gallegos, Luis Uriel Pérez Maldonado, Fausto Sánchez López et Samuel Jouault. Un grand merci à Wendy Grenade, Aaron Kamugisha, Patricia Mohammed, Mala Jokhan, Urias Peters, Tonia Frame, Kimalee Phillips et Nadir Sharif. Assurément, nous avons gagné en stabilité grâce au soutien constant du Secrétariat et du Comité local, dont les équipes fabuleuses savent mettre en pratique nos idées parfois vagues et théoriques. Sans nul doute, cette année fut pour moi un challenge et une expérience très gratifiantes : merci, du fond du cœur, à notre Président cette année, Dr. Godfrey St Bernard, pour avoir été assez fou de me demander de prendre part à cette aventure, mais par dessus tout, pour nous avoir guidé de bonne grâce et pour avoir été à la fois un leader et un co-équipier d'une patience sans faille. Merci Godfrey, merci à tous.

Dans les pages suivantes, vous pourrez lire le programme et prendre connaissance des lignes directrices qui se croisent dans ce puzzle interdisciplinaire, ainsi que des diverses manières dont nos collègues ont répondu au thème de la conférence, soulevant des approches et des problèmes auxquels nous n'aurions sans doute pas pensé seuls, et comment ils ont partagé leurs points de vue avec nous. Plutôt que de résumer le contenu du programme, je préfère revenir brièvement sur les deux éléments qui nous ont guidés et accompagnés en coulisse. Un des points clé pour nous a été Grenade. C'est la protagoniste de cette 38ème conférence annuelle, et nous sommes honorés et ravis de faire partie de cette merveilleuse communauté et de célébrer cette occasion lors de rencontres multiples et variées, telles que les panels de discussions, les conférences plénier, les ateliers, les tables rondes, le salon littéraire et le salon sur les films et les bande-son. Grenade a ouvert grand les bras à la Caribbean Studies Association, et nous en sommes for reconnaissants. L'autre élément clé pour nous est la nature multilinguistique/plurilingue de CSA : continuant les efforts fournis ces dernières années en vue d'un CSA polyglotte, notamment grâce à la persévérance du Translingual Working Group (TWG), nous avons demandé cette année aux membres de CSA de transmettre leurs propositions et résumés en traduction espagnole, française et anglaise. Vous avez été nombreux à répondre à cette demande avec enthousiasme. L'anglais reste la langue la plus représentée (en nombre) mais à la lecture du programme vous verrez que les titres des panels sont toujours en deux langues (Anglais/Français, Anglais/Espagnol, Espagnol/Anglais) et nous avons voulu garder bien visibles ces trois langages du CSA. Nous avons donc traduit toutes les séances plénier et nous traduirons autant de panels que possibles par le système de Whispering Translation, grâce aux généreux efforts de nos membres et à la coordination de Nadia Celis et Lisa Outar. Tous les résumés des communications acceptées à la conférence sont disponibles online sur notre site internet dans tous les langages transmis par leurs auteurs. Certains membres ont inclus des traductions en néerlandais et en créole : ce sera notre challenge pour l'avenir, rendre toutes nos langues visibles et accessibles. Ce fut une expérience très gratifiante et je n'ai pas de doute sur le fait que notre politique au CSA favorise et encourage l'expression de multiples langues.

Salutations de votre directrice de programme

Je souhaite remercier tous les délégués, orateurs et auteurs invités, écrivains et artistes, pour leur patience et leur collaboration lors de l'organisation de cet événement pendant les mois passés, et pour avoir su nous prévenir à l'avance des modifications, annulations et desiderata pour les présentations et le déroulement des panels. Je suis bien consciente qu'il y aura des changements et annulations de dernière minute, cela est inévitable et je vous demande une dernière fois de faire preuve de compréhension et de patience si le déroulement des débats et le format des panels s'en voyait perturbé. Merci encore à vous tous pour faire de cette semaine une excellente et mémorable semaine de rencontres.

Message from the Local Organising Committee Co-Chairs

English

Colleagues and Participants

The Local Organising Committee (LOC) of the Caribbean Studies Association (CSA) welcomes you to Grenada – the Spice Isle of the Caribbean! We thank you for choosing Grenada and we are pleased to host the 38th Annual CSA Conference.

This year's CSA conference brings together the monumental significance of place and time. You are here, on Grenadian soil, thirty years after the implosion of the Grenada Revolution and the US invasion of Grenada, to interrogate Caribbean Spaces and Institutions: Contesting Paradigms of "Development" in the 21st Century. We invoke the spirits of Fedon, Marryshow, Butler, Gairy, Bishop and our other nationalists and revolutionaries and implore you to be bold in your deliberations and steadfast in your resolve to unsettle conventional frameworks of 'development.' We encourage you to map out new terrain for Caribbean thought and social action. May this conference be intellectually stimulating, as the Caribbean seeks to disentangle itself from prolonged crises and the shackles of under-development.

Beyond the intense scholarly debates, we trust you will find time to enjoy the warmth of our people and rich cultural heritage. It is our quest to showcase Grenada in all her splendour. The LOC has organised a CSA Cultural Village at Camerhogne Park and a number of other activities to allow delegates the opportunity to embrace the spicy-ness of the Spice Isle. A visit to Grenada is incomplete without the experience of the majestic Grand Anse Beach. Find time for a swim in the clear blue waters or just enjoy a therapeutic stroll along the white sand. We have also organised several tours around the island; which we know you will enjoy. We encourage you to delight your appetites with Grenadian cuisine; especially our famous oildown.

For the LOC, this was a most interesting journey. Most LOC members had never even heard of the CSA, yet we expended substantial time and effort, united in our determination to ensure the success of the 38th Annual Conference of the CSA. We wish to thank all the sponsors who gave in cash or kind, despite the harsh economic climate. Welcome again and we hope this year's CSA is a memorable one.

Mensaje del Comité Organizador Local

Colegas y Participantes

El Comité Organizador Local (LOC) de la Asociación de Estudios del Caribe (CSA) te da la bienvenida a Granada -¡La Isla de los Especies del Caribe!- Les agradecemos el haber elegido a Granada y estamos encantados de presidir la 38^a Conferencia Anual de la CSA.

La conferencia de este año reúne la monumental importancia del lugar y el tiempo. Usted está aquí, en territorio granadino, treinta años después de la implosión de la Revolución de Granada y la invasión de los Estados Unidos a Granada, para interrogar los Espacios e instituciones caribeñas: Desafiando los paradigmas de "desarrollo" en el siglo XXI. Invocamos a los espíritus de Fedon, Marryshow, Butler, Gairy, Bishop y los demás nacionalistas y revolucionarios, y les rogamos que sean atrevidos en sus deliberaciones y firmes en sus decisiones de desestabilizar los marcos convencionales de "desarrollo". Los alentamos a trazar nuevos terrenos para el pensamiento y la acción social del Caribe. Hagan que esta conferencia sea intelectualmente estimulante, mientras el Caribe busca desenmarañarse de las prolongadas crisis y de los grilletes del subdesarrollo.

Más allá de los intensos debates académicos, esperamos que se den el tiempo para disfrutar de la calidez de nuestra gente y su rica herencia cultural. Es nuestra misión mostrar todo el esplendor de Granada. El Comité Organizador

Finance

Local ha organizado una villa cultural de la CSA en Camerhogne Park y una serie de otras actividades para permitir a los delegados disfrutar lo "condimentado" de esta sabrosa Isla de las Especies. Una visita a Granada queda incompleta si no pasas por la playa de Grand Anse. Date tiempo para nadar en las cristalinas aguas, o simplemente disfruta de un paseo terapéutico sobre la blanca arena. También hemos organizado varias excursiones por la isla, que sabemos les fascinarán. Los invitamos a deleitar su paladar con nuestra excepcional cocina granadina, especialmente el famoso oildown.

Para el LOC, este fue un viaje muy interesante. La mayoría de los miembros ni siquiera habían oido hablar de la CSA, sin embargo, hemos invertido mucho tiempo y esfuerzo, unidos a nuestra determinación para asegurar el éxito de la 38 ª Conferencia Anual de la CSA. Queremos agradecer a todos los patrocinadores que nos aportaron en efectivo o en especie, a pesar de la dura situación económica.

Bienvenidos de nuevo y esperamos que la conferencia de la CSA de este año sea una experiencia inolvidable.

Message from the Local Organising Committee Co-Chairs

Chers Collègues and Participants,

Le comité local d'organisation de l'Association des études caribéennes (AEC) vous souhaite la bienvenue à la Grenade – l'Île aux Epices de la Caraïbe ! Nous vous remercions d'avoir choisi la Grenade et sommes heureux d'accueillir la 38ème rencontre annuelle de l'AEC.

La rencontre de l'AEC de cette année met en dialogue la signification monumentale du lieu et du temps. Vous êtes ici, sur le sol grenadien, trente ans après l'implosion de la Révolution grenadienne et l'invasion états-unienne de Grenade, pour interroger les Espaces caribéens et les institutions : Contester les paradigmes du « développement » au 21ème siècle. Nous invoquons les esprits de Fedon, Marryshow, Butler, Gairy, Bishop et nos nationalistes et révolutionnaires et en appelons à votre audace intellectuelle dans vos débats et vos résolutions à contester les acceptations conventionnelles du « développement ». Nous vous encourageons à initier de nouvelles fondations pour la pensée et l'action sociale caribéennes. Que cette rencontre soit intellectuellement stimulante, au moment où la Caraïbe cherche à se dépêtrer de crises prolongées et des chaînes du sous-développement.

Au-delà des intenses débats académiques, nous savons que vous trouverez le temps de profiter de la chaleur de notre peuple et de notre riche héritage culturel. Nous souhaitons vivement pré-senter la Grenade dans toute sa splendeur. Le comité local d'organisation a organisé un village culturel de l'AEC à Camerhogne Park et une série d'autres activités pour offrir l'opportunité aux participants de jouir du « piment » de l'Île aux épices. Une visite de la grenade serait incomplète sans l'expérience de la majestueuse Plage de la Grande Anse. Trouvez un peu de temps pour une brasse dans ses eaux claires ou profitez simplement d'une promenade sur son sable blanc. Nous avons aussi organisé différentes excursions dans l'île ; nous savons que vous les appréciez. Nous vous encourageons à jouir des délices de la cuisine grenadienne, en particulier notre célèbre oildown.

Pour le comité local d'organisation, ce fût un voyage des plus intéressants. La plupart des membres du comité n'avaient jamais entendu parler de l'AEC, mais nous avons néanmoins investi beaucoup de temps et d'énergie, unis dans notre détermination à assurer le succès de la 38ème rencontre annuelle de l'AEC. Nous souhaitons remercier tous les sponsors pour leur participation financière ou leur sollicitude, malgré la situation économique difficile.

Bienvenue encore et nous espérons que cette rencontre annuelle de l'AEC sera mémorable.

38TH ANNUAL CSA CONFERENCE: INVITED SPEAKERS

UNIVERSITY OF WEST INDIES ST AUGUSTINE: OPENING PLENARY. “Fostering sustainable economic development in grenada: A contemporary analysis of the economic situation”

SPEAKERS

Karl Theodore is the Director of the HEU, Centre for Health Economics at the University of the West Indies. He is Professor of Economics in the Department of Economics on the St. Augustine Campus where he has taught Health Economics and supervised research in this area for many years. He has published widely and has led a multidisciplinary team of professionals in producing a number of technical reports for governments and international agencies. The work of the HEU team has been one of the main contributions to a better understanding of the economic impact of chronic non-communicable diseases and HIV/AIDS in the Caribbean, and a better estimation of the cost of responding to these epidemics. Over the years, Professor Theodore has also been an advisor and/or consultant to a number of governments and/or state agencies across the Caribbean region. Professor Theodore is now responsible for training a number of young economists in areas aimed at strengthening the health systems throughout the Caribbean.

Ramesh Ramsaran is Professor Emeritus at The University of the West Indies, St. Augustine. He is a former Professor of International Money and Finance at the Institute of International Relations and a former Executive Director of the Centre for Money and Finance. Professor Ramsaran has served as a consultant to a number of international organizations including the World Bank, UNECLAC and the UNDP. Professor Ramsaran has written extensively on development, international relations and money and finance.

Patrick Antoine is an Economist by profession, and a first class honours graduate in Economics from the University of the West Indies. He holds a Masters Degree (1989) and a Doctoral Degree (1992) in Economics, from the University of Florida, with specializations in Economic Policy, International Trade Theory and Policy and Econometrics. He is the recipient of several academic awards from the University of the West Indies and the University of Florida. He holds over 20 years of experience working throughout the Caribbean, North America and Latin America. He served as Lead Technical Advisor at the Caribbean Regional Negotiating Machinery (CRNM), as well as Lead Negotiator on agriculture. He has worked with the Inter American Institute for Cooperation in Agriculture (IICA) as Head of Multinational Projects, Trade and Investment with responsibility for the Caribbean and Central America. At IICA, he also served as Head Trade and Integration for the Caribbean and Latin American Region. He has consulted with major multinational corporations and has worked for several Caribbean governments on trade and macro-policy issues. He has served as Strategic Trade Policy Advisor to the ANSA McAL Group, and has also led the OECS sub-regional grouping in negotiations on trade and multilateral issues. Through his several years of work with both the public and private sectors, Dr. Antoine has written extensively on a wide range of macro-economic subjects including on agricultural diversification, productivity growth and competitiveness, international trade policy and integration, among other areas. Anselm Francis is Honorary Senior Research Fellow and Former Senior Lecturer, at the Institute of International Relations, The University of the West Indies, St. Augustine. Formerly Acting Director, 1996-1997, 1998-2000.

My academic career spanned an entire generation. I joined the staff of the Institute of International Relations, St. Augustine Campus, in 1979 and retired as a Senior Lecturer thirty years later. I taught the International Law course and conducted postgraduate seminars in areas as varied as the Law of the Sea, United Nations Peacekeeping and International Economic Law. As far as research is concerned, primary focus was on the Law of the Sea, particularly post UNCLOS III developments. As far back as 1991 close attention was paid to delimitation issues in the Caribbean Sea and a search for a special regime for the resources therein was undertaken.

For many years I was the coordinator of the Institute's Diplomatic Training Programme and in that capacity collaborated with the CARICOM Secretariat. I assumed primary responsibility for the simulation exercises in Negotiation, both bilateral and multilateral. During the period 1996 – 1998, I was appointed to act as Director of the Institute and when I retired in 2009 I was appointed Honorary Senior Research Fellow.

Sheldon A. Mitchell believes in the power of one acting intelligently and responsibly, inspiring others to do the same. Since November 2009 he has devoted his thoughts to impacting the lives of the less fortunate and the poverty stricken, using simple ideas which happen to be green. His green ideas allowed him to travel to Malaysia where he made a splash at the IGEM 2010 Green Technology Conference and Exhibition Kuala Lumpur where he represented not just Trinidad and Tobago but the Caribbean and Latin American regions. He is the founder of Citizens for a Greener Caribbean and is the "Green Man" in many circles in Trinidad and Tobago. He is an activist for change setting up conferences and seminars designed to provoke thought within the student body at the UWI St. Augustine campus. Somewhat surprisingly he admits that he is a law student with a passion for the poor, the environment, regional integration and more sustainable models of development. He also has great interest in aviation and has green ideas in that regard as well, designed to benefit the region. Sheldon Mitchell holds a BSc in Management Studies and MSc in Aviation Management both from the University of the West Indies. He also holds certificates in Air Traffic management in the areas of Aerodrome, Approach Control and Area Control from the CATC Trinidad and Tobago.

... provides a revealing contemporary view of a thriving cultural institution, created by and for workers long before the Cuban revolution.

Robert Ingalls,
Professor Emeritus,
University of South Florida, Co-author,
Tampa Cigar Workers: A Pictorial History

From the mid-1800s lectores, or readers, have played an integral role in the world of cigarmakers as educators, entertainers, and political organizers.

WITH A STROKE OF THE CHAVETA takes viewers into the legendary cigar factories of Cuba to witness the surviving practice of la lectura de tabaquería, the collective reading of literature, while tabaqueros roll habanos.

CUBAN ROOTS/BRONX STORIES highlights the historical journey of an Afro-Cuban-American family, from Jamaica, to Cuba, to the Bronx, revealing that the Cuban-American experience is more diverse, racially and ideologically, than we are often led to believe.

The experiences of one family speak to the larger issues of immigration, race, class, and diaspora that help to shape the identities and political consciousness of everyday people.

AKWANTU
THE JOURNEY

a film by ROY T. ANDERSON

USA, 2012, DVD, 87 minutes

Akwantu: the Journey is an award-winning documentary film that tells the story of the legendary Maroons of Jamaica and their gallant fight for freedom.

Screening: Tuesday, June 4, 2013 @ 12:00 – 1:30pm
Venue: St Andrews Room, Grand Anse Beach Hotel

Thanks to his own heritage and considerable work, Anderson has been able to bring this important group to the attention of the wider world.

John Thornton, Boston University

We pretend that Garvey is our icon but ignore his words: a people without knowledge of their past history...are like a tree without roots. (With this film) Roy has ensured that he is not rootless like so many other Jamaicans.

Verene Shepherd, UWI Mona

This is a must see film...Meticulously researched, it is imperative that it is viewed and discussed in our schools as a balance to the history that is taught now.

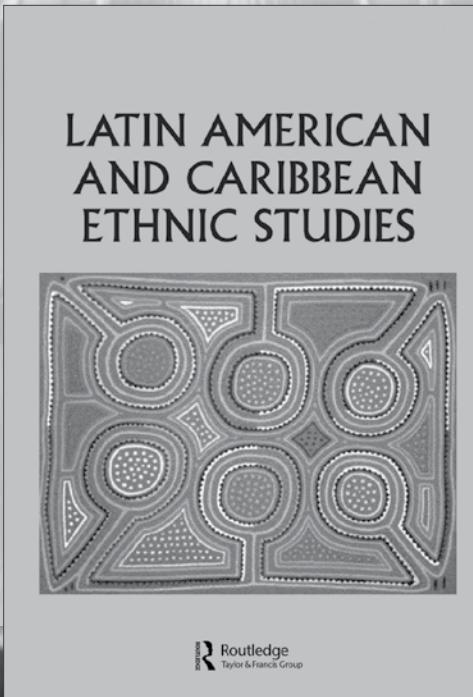

Murphy Brown, Columnist - Share Newspaper

Latin American and Caribbean Ethnic Studies

Latin American and Caribbean Ethnic Studies (LACES) is a cross-disciplinary venue for quality research on ethnicity, race relations, and indigenous peoples. It is open to case studies, comparative analysis, and theoretical contributions that reflect innovative and critical perspectives, focused on any country or countries in Latin America and the Caribbean, written by authors from anywhere in the world. In a context in which ethnic issues are becoming increasingly important throughout the region, we are seeing the rapid expansion of a considerable corpus of work on their social, political, and cultural implications. The aim of the journal is to play a constructive role in the consolidation of this new field of studies and in the configuration of its contours as an intellectual enterprise.

The University College of the Cayman Islands (UCCI) presents the 2014 Caribbean Conference, with the theme, "Towards a Corruption-Free Caribbean: Ethics, Values, and Morality." UCCI is collaborating with Canada's Carleton University's Centre for Values and Ethics (COVE); the Department of Government of the University of the West Indies (UWI), Mona, Jamaica; and the National Integrity Action (NIA) of Jamaica.

This conference aims to reflect on various aspects of values and ethics, as they relate not only to the function of Caribbean governments and political parties, but also to the role of every institution – whether educational, religious, or social -- across the region.

The importance of this conference lies in the principle that values and ethical philosophies are intrinsic to every human activity. Interrogations of these mores have consequences for the policies and practices of public institutions at all levels. In turn, the choices about values in these institutions impact individuals, families, and, indeed, nations. One of the most important exercises, therefore, is to deliberate thoughtfully about values, making sure that decisions are accordingly responsive to the voices of reason and humanity.

Conference Objectives

The main Conference objectives are to:

- Bring together the main thinkers and political actors, as well as religious, business and other private-sector interests from all regional territories, to examine the state of ethics and values in the Caribbean and to formulate solutions going forward;
- Foster an intellectually rich and open environment in which to discuss these critical and urgent issues;
- Demonstrate the clear link between corruption and economic stagnation and social decline;
- Bind Caribbean political leaders to ethical processes of decision making; and to
- Develop effective strategies for the implementation across the region of outcomes of the conference.

Conference Planners

As in the three previous conferences, focused on themes of importance to the region, this conference is organised by UCCI in collaboration with regional and international entities.

Sub-themes of the forthcoming March 2014 Conference

St. George's University THINK BEYOND

Like Carnival, St. George's University has become an integral part of Caribbean tradition. For more than 35 years, St. George's University has been honored to be part of the Grenadian community; together, we've created a university whose students hold global influence.

Join the thousands who have come before you as we continue to raise global educational standards.

- SGU has provided nearly 1,000 scholarships to CARICOM students in the past year
- Programs in medicine, veterinary medicine, other biological sciences, public health, research, business, and information technology
- Beautiful, technologically advanced campus
- St. George's University students who took the USMLE 1 for the first time in 2012 achieved a 97 percent pass rate, marking the fourth consecutive year that SGU's overall first-time pass rate on the examination surpassed 90 percent. These students have come to SGU from 37 countries, with Canadian students achieving an impressive 100 percent pass rate.
- The MPH program is one of only five non-US programs to receive accreditation by the US Council of Education for Public Health
- MBA programs offer scheduled online classes with two separate one-week residencies on the academic paradise of Grenada
- Doctor of Veterinary Medicine (DVM) program earned full accreditation from the American Veterinary Medical Association Council on Education (AVMA COE)

CANCELLATIONS

The following are the CSA 2013 presenters who gave notice of their cancellation/withdrawal from this year's program IN ADVANCE OF their panel session.

Please also note that some presenters were kind enough to find replacements and therefore to continue to support their panel.

We thank you for showing professional responsibility and respect to fellow presenters and encourage delegates to always announce their no-attendance at future events.

To "no-show" is non-professional. No shows are not listed here, but they have been withdrawn from the abstract booklet and the conference program. They are also noted for future reference.
