

THE CSA YOUNG SCHOLARS MENTORING PROGRAMME

Mentee Application 2021-2022 Academic Year

Thank you for your interest in The CSA Young Scholars Mentoring Programme for 2021-2022 Academic Year!

Mentoring is offered via 2 modalities:

- A. Traditional - 1:1 pairing
- B. Group/Project-based - The CSA Young Scholars Dialogue

The Programme Manager will review applications and match as requested.

Incomplete applications WILL NOT be considered.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: AUGUST 18, 2021

Please visit the CSA's Mentoring Programme page for additional information.

Your Contact Details

Please include your contact information below

First Name:

Last Name:

Affiliation:

Email Address:

Year PhD or other Graduate Degree Anticipated:

Confirm Email Address:

Are you a current member of CSA?

Please specify your research interest/area:

Yes No

Please attach a copy of your current curriculum vitae to this application.

OPTIONS, INTERESTS & AGREEMENT

Please select a mentoring option:

If you selected B, which topic would you like

Option A Option B

to speak on: _____

If you selected A, on which of the following topics would you like to receive mentoring:

Advocacy and Lobbying Advancement to Full Professor Job Market – Academic

Job Market – Alt-Academic/Non-Academic Public/Media Engagement Publishing

Research Funding and Grants Tenure and Promotion Teaching

Work-Life Balance Other _____

Your selection as a participant in The CSA Young Scholars Mentoring Programme - Option A or B - is based on your agreement:-*

Option A, I agree to (check all boxes)

- Make initial contact within one week of notification of match
- Maintain open and regular communication for the duration of the programme
- Respect my volunteer mentor's time and do my best to honour all agreed upon commitments
- Understand that the programme is for my personal and intellectual development, as opposed to paper review or job placement.

By writing my initials on the dotted line, I agree to the statements above.....

Option B, I agree to (check all boxes)

- Maintain open and regular communication for the duration of the programme
- Work as a member of a team, where required
- Respect my volunteer coordinator's time and do my best to honour all agreed upon commitments
- Understand that the programme is for my personal and intellectual development, as opposed to paper review or job placement.

By writing my initials on the dotted line, I agree to the statements above.....

SUBMIT